2. I would reduce the strength and the work of the University Council. I do not think it necessary or desirable that the Principals of Colleges should be ex-officio members of this body. The Council may be relieved of a great deal of routine work by vesting powers in the Vice-Chancellor as regards some of the administrative details, and in the Principals and the Councils of the Constituent Colleges in regard to some details of the academic work.

3. I would add 'Standing Committee of the Academic Council' 'College Councils' and 'Students' Representative Councils' to the Boards and Committees mentioned in IV (b) 10 (p. 4).

4. I consider it desirable that the teaching and other staff of the University [(Vide Section III (4)] should gradually cease to be Government servants, and that suitable Provident Fund Schemes (in lieu of pension) should be instituted by the University for the benefit of those in University Service.
